A Closing Note...

As part of our liturgy today we also remember those students scheduled to graduate, but who were called to God, especially, Nadine Arseneau and Tina Di Rado. Nadine Arsenau was a 25 year old Modern Languages and Linguistics student who, tragically, was killed in an auto accident on her way home to New Brunswick for a family funeral. Tina was to graduate in Economics she, too, died in an car accident on May 9th. She was 24.
